| FALL 2016      | Day    | Date      | Tonic                                   | What's Due                           | Tasks  | Notes/Advice   |
|----------------|--------|-----------|---|--------------------------------------|--|--|
| FALL 2016      | Day    | Date      | Topic                                   | what's Due                           | Look at the examples of student work on the                                | Notes/ Advice  |
|                |        |           | SCULPTURE                               |                                      | web site.  |  |
|                | Mon    | 8/29/16   | Class orientation                       |                                      | Read the syllabus and calendar.  | Class policies, expectations, and tour of facilities   |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  | Historical Perspective   |
|                | Wed    | 8/31/16   | Lecture                                 |                                      | Buy your safety items (see syllabus)                                       | Ancient to Contemporary sculpture  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  |  |
| College Closed | Mon    | 9/5/16    |   |                                      |  |  |
|                |        | 0,0,00    |   | Your printed assignment choices with |  | Don't miss the safety orientation!   |
|                |        |           |   | the 10 Sketches. See the assignments | Bring your safety goggles/glasses to this class,                           | If you do, you will not be able to use any power tools in this class and   |
|                | Wed    | 9/7/16    | SAFETY ORIENTATION                      | section in the syllabus for details  | and to every class until the end of the semester.                          | there is very little you will be able to complete without them   |
|                |        |           | WRITTEN QUIZ                            |                                      |  |  |
|                | l      | 0/10/10   | On Syllabus, Handbook, and              |                                      |  | Review your drawings and plan for sculpture creation with Thomás   |
|                | ivion  | 9/12/16   | Safety Lecture                          |                                      | Individual discussions with Thomás.  | during an individual discussion and get approval.  |
|                | Wed    | 9/14/16   | Studio                                  |                                      | Stone, wax, other: Begin Work  | Demo: Stone and Wax  |
|                | 11.00  | -,-,      |   |                                      |  |  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  |  |
|                | Mon    | 9/19/16   | Studio                                  |                                      | Steel: Begin Work  | Demo: Steel  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  |  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  |  |
|                | Wed    | 9/21/16   | Studio                                  |                                      |  |  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  | Progress assessment: Discuss the progress and direction with your  |
|                |        |           | INDIVIDUAL CRITIQUES                    |                                      | Be prepared to discuss your plans and progress                             | professor. Thomás will meet with each student individually to discuss  |
|                | Mon    | 9/26/16   | & Studio                                |                                      | with Thomás as you continue to work  | their projects.  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  |  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  |  |
|                | Wed    | 9/28/16   | Studio                                  |                                      |  |  |
|                | 1.700  | -, -0, 10 |   |                                      |  |  |
|                |        |           | 1                                       |                                      |  |  |
|                | Mon    | 10/3/16   | Studio                                  |                                      |  |  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  |  |
|                | Wed    | 10/5/16   | Studio                                  |                                      |  |  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  |  |
| College Closed | Mon    | 10/10/16  | Studio                                  |                                      |  |  |
| College Closed | IVIOII | 10/10/10  | Studio                                  |                                      |  |  |
|                | Wed    | 10/12/16  | Studio                                  |                                      |  |  |
|                | 1      | ,,        |   |                                      |  | Formal Class Presentation.   |
|                |        |           |   |                                      | Finished Projects  | Present work in-progress only if you have permission to do so.   |
|                | Mon    | 10/17/16  | MID-TERM CRITIQUE                       | Present your first finished artwork. | and/or Progress Assessment.  | Unfinished work will be assigned a failing grade   |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  |  |
|                | Wed    | 10/19/16  | Studio                                  |                                      | Begin work on second sculpture   |  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  |  |
|                | Mon    | 10/24/16  | Studio                                  |                                      |  |  |
|                | 1      | ,,        |   |                                      |  |  |
|                | Wed    | 10/26/16  | Studio                                  |                                      |  |  |
|                |        |           |   | Wax work for bronze casting.         |  | No wax work accepted after today.  |
|                |        |           |   | Submit wax to weigh and for          | the wax original.  | Bronze will be poured only if there is sufficient artwork to justify   |
|                | Mon    | 10/31/16  | Studio                                  | inspection                           | Students need to commit to buying the final                                | running the foundry. If it's determined that there is not enough work,   |
|                | 14/    | 11/2/16   | Chindia                                 |                                      |  |  |
|                | wea    | 11/2/16   | Studio                                  |                                      | Wax work: add sprues and vents - Begin                                     | Plan on spending time "investing" your wax   |
|                |        |           |   |                                      | investing the work after sprues and vents have                             | between today and two days before bronze-pouring day. You will have  |
|                | Mon    | 11/7/16   | Studio                                  |                                      | been inspected by Thomás   | to come to the studio two or three times per day and to spend about  |
|                |        | · ·       |   |                                      |  |  |
|                | Wed    | 11/9/16   | Studio                                  |                                      | Wax work: Begin investing work.  |  |
|                |        | [         |   |                                      |  |  |
|                | N 4    | 11/14/10  | DRONZE DOUBLING DAY                     | No work with tools in the country    |  | All power tools will be off lies Children and the lies of the lies |
|                | ivion  | 11/14/16  | BRONZE POURING DAY INDIVIDUAL CRITIQUES | No work with tools in the studio     | Bronze devesting   | All power tools will be off-line. Students may work with hand-tools only.  Progress assessment. Discuss the progress and direction with your   |
|                | Wed    | 11/16/16  | & Studio                                |                                      | Progress Assessment  | professor.   |
|                | 1      | 1 ., -,   |   |                                      |     |  |
|                |        |           | 1                                       |                                      |  |  |
|                | Mon    | 11/21/16  | Studio                                  |                                      | Stone work: Begin rasping and sanding                                      |  |
|                | 1      |           | L                                       |                                      | Steel: Finish all welding and begin finishing the                          |  |
| College Closed | Wed    | 11/23/16  | Studio                                  | Digital Art for the 3D Printer       | surface as appropriate.  |  |
|                |        |           | 1                                       |                                      |  |  |
|                | Mon    | 11/28/16  | Studio                                  |                                      | Beginning 3D Printing  |  |
|                | 1.011  | , _0, 10  |   |                                      | -59  |  |
|                | Wed    | 11/30/16  | Studio                                  |                                      | Stone work: Begin polishing and waxing                                     |  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  |  |
|                |        | 1.        |   |                                      |  |  |
|                | Mon    | 12/5/16   | Studio                                  |                                      |  |  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      | Finish your work and begin setting it up properly                          |  |
|                | \\\\   | 12/7/16   | Studio                                  |                                      | for the final critique (follow the CritiqueGuidelines on the syllabus) | During the Final Critique, there will be no time for setup, so prepare your work for the critique before next class starts.  |
|                | wed    | 14///10   | Statio                                  |                                      | Guidelines on the syllabus)  | We will start the critique at the beginning of the class-sharp!  |
|                |        |           |   |                                      |  | You will leave your work in the studio to be graded.   |
|                |        |           |   | All sculptures completed during the  | Formal Class Presentation.   | You may come back before the final to photograph your work for your  |
|                |        |           |   | semester are to be presented in this | Follow the "Critique Guidelines" (on the                                   | portfolio, but you may not work or remove the art from the studio until  |
|                | Mon    | 12/12/16  | FINAL CRITIQUE                          | critique.                            | syllabus).   | the next meeting.  |
|                |        |           |                              |                                      |   |   |